BIOGRAPHY DENNIS KEITH, EHS Division Director Environmental Health Services

Dennis Keith is the Environmental Health Services Division Director for the Davis County Health Department. The Division oversees a dynamic variety of environmental health programs including air quality, environmental response, water, and institutions.

Keith has more than 12 years of experience working throughout the environmental health field. In that time, he has worked extensively on developing innovative programs and new procedures in air quality, environmental response, and food protection. He actively serves on several state-wide public health committees and teams.

Keith graduated with an undergraduate degree in Biology from the University of Utah in 1997.
